If you are an Ohio resident age 60 or older, a tuition-free lifelong learning opportunity is available at The Ohio State University. Enjoy the experience of interacting with college instructors and students, and attend classes on a noncredit/non-degree basis. Convenient online registration is available through the Office of Distance Education and eLearning.

CALENDAR

Please Note: Deadline to register for summer term is July 7 to accommodate the new summer term schedule. However, enrollment after a course start date is not advised due to the accelerated pace of summer term classes.

NEXT STEPS

1) Visit Buckeye Link (buckeyelink.osu.edu) to verify that courses selected are OPEN - follow the instructions in the Get Started tab on the Program 60 website or in the Program 60 Registration Guide under Resources

2) Ask your instructor(s) for permission to attend and give them the Carmen Information Sheet (available under Resources) at the first class meeting

3) If you are new or if you have not taken classes in the last year, activate your OSU username (lastname.#) once your name.# has been assigned by the Program 60 Coordinator

PROGRAM 60 ASSOCIATION

If you enjoy social interaction with new people and learning beyond the classroom, there are additional lifelong learning opportunities such as lectures, social events, and volunteer opportunities through Program 60 Association. Program 60 Association is not affiliated with the university.

Yearly membership dues are $5 for September 1 to August 31. All membership dues for Program 60 Association are payable to Program 60 Association and mailed to Dick Henley, Treasurer, 11800 Poplar Creek Road, Baltimore, OH 43105. Email questions to the Treasurer at osupgm60@iserv.net.

Contact the Program 60 staff in the Office of Distance Education and eLearning at program60@osu.edu or 614-292-8860 for personal assistance. The office is located on Ohio State’s main campus, Enarson Classroom Building Basement, 2009 Millikin Road, Columbus, OH 43210. Visit us online at program60.osu.edu.
